

Level 3 in Safeguarding Children

Who is it for?

This qualification is appropriate for individuals working in any environment where there is contact with children, including youth workers, care workers, local authority staff, school support staff and voluntary workers, as well as those who work in a n environment with children, but who do not have a direct role.

Accreditation

This course is accredited by Edexcel

Course Content

The programme consists of three units covering:

- Recognising child abuse
- Preventing child abuse
- Reporting child abuse

Progression Opportunities

Options include NVQ Level 3 Health & Social Care, Children and Young People or Adult Pathways